CAPRICE AND SANDRA SANCHEZ

LEZBO HANDJOB

Sandra Sanchez is cumming hard on her friend Caprice's hand. Her juices flow so thick and heavy, Caprice's palm is wet and glistening, cooze-sauce dripping down her wrist all the way to her elbow. "Come on! Lick my clit, Caprice!" Sandra begs. But Caprice makes her wait—and cum three more times—on her probing fingers. Anticipation is always the best part.

PRESENTS INTIMATE STORIES AND XXX ADVICE

WITH...

CHERIE DEVILLE

ALL PHOTOS COURTESY OF EVIL ANGEL, JULES JORDAN, MILE HIGH, NEW SENSATIONS, ZERO TOLERANCE

PORN VALLEY, CA—What we love about Cherie Deville is her freewheeling attitude, combined with her lust for porn sex. No matter the scene, Cherie always has a big smile on her face, and it's not just because she got to cum hard and was left with a face full of jizz. Cherie's smile shines as bright as her golden long hair, and her laugh is as identifiable as the lustful moans she emits.

Can you tell us about your current projects?

I did my first blowbang and my first DP for Elegant Angel. It was amazing, a really big deal. A blowbang has been a fantasy of mine for a long time. I also have a compilation coming out from New Sensations. I love working with that company and those scenes are great. I also did an interracial DP with Mandingo. It was extra exciting. That was for Mason at Hard X. Mason is a great director. I don't know how she does it. She's very particular. As a woman, she's really aware of how women look. Her movies are glorious.

Are you a dominant or submissive person?

It might surprise people, but I'm more submissive. That's my preference.

How similar is your real life versus your porn life?

I'm a little shy on my social media, so I'm not sure if you get to see my real personality there, and everything I shoot on film is a version of the real me.

Is it hard to date outside of the porn industry?

Yes. People who don't work in this business have a hard time understanding that sex on film has nothing to do with them. I've never had a problem, but it's the people not in the industry that end up having a problem.

What advice would you give a civilian guy who wants to date a porn actress?

Be confident. Most civilian guys get nervous, but if you have confidence you'll be fine. That's what most women want. There's no special recipe just because a girl is in porn.

What's one thing your fans would be surprised to learn about you?

I used to be a professional swing dancer! The lindy hop!

How do you react when your fans see you in public?

It doesn't happen often enough. I think it's wonderful and flattering.

What advice would you give to new girls entering the adult entertainment business?

Don't think of this as a short-term way to get money. There are consequences to doing porn. There are jobs you'll never get. There are friends and family who will give up on you. Think about the consequences and decide that you're okay with the consequences before you go in.

Anything you'd like to say in closing to our readers?

Thanks for being a fan! I appreciate each and every one of you. Keep buying magazines and keep buying movies so I can keep having a job!

KATSUNI AND ROMAN

HOT LAP

Katsuni is our favorite exotic import and today Roman is taking her for a test drive. He pounds his piston into her furry engine, and Katsuni's love-lube bubbles up around his shaft. Roman's balls slap against Katsuni's curvy trunk with a meaty thwack, and Katsuni kicks it into overdrive. Enjoy the ride, Roman! Click it or ticket.

TIME BANDITS

PICTURE-PERFECT PROOF OF TIME-TRAVELING TOURISTS CAUGHT ON FILM

BY PETER THOMPSON

"Time travel? It's real, and most of us have already done it!" —Anonymous

Today, a trip to the very near future is not only possible, but very common—anyone who has ever taken a flight aboard a jet has technically "traveled time", albeit just a miniscule fraction of a second, hardly measurable. Russian cosmonaut Sergei Krikalev spent over 800 days orbiting the Earth on the International Space Station and arrived home 0.2 seconds into the future.

Traveling into the immediate future occurs during an event called time dilation. Time dilation is achieved by traveling at speeds approaching the speed of light.

But traveling back in time is a hell of a lot more difficult and not as simple as hailing a DeLorean that will do 88 miles per hour. Physicists estimate that if it were possible to go back in time, we'd need much more than the infamous 1.21-gigawatts harvested from a lightning strike that nearly trapped Back To The Future's Marty McFly back in the year 1955.

There's nothing in our current understanding of quantum physics that rules out traveling back to the past, but physicists who know estimate that the amount of energy required would be on the order of the lifetime energy of a star.

WHAT IF WE ALREADY CAN?

The concept of time travel has thrilled our species since the idea first started appearing in early science fiction stories of the 18th century. The ability to make seamless quantum leaps from one point in space and time to another, to hop around history like a randy rabbit, able to see the future beyond your allotted lifespan, that makes for great science fiction. To be able to experience the distant past—long dead time magically reanimated out of oxidized bone and dust—to have the power to move forward and backward in the universal rivers that flux and flow like tides, this certainly must be mankind's all-time favorite fantasy. The greatest thought experiment of the species? Well, what if we already can!

If time travel has been invented in the future, shouldn't there be time travelers all around us now? Where are all these time tourists and why aren't they coming forward to introduce themselves, and what exactly might they be able to tell us about the future?

Then again, perhaps it's impossible to return to the past. Might our future selves have very stringent "non-interference" rules about making an unannounced second appearance?

Time travel may very well be a four-dimensional Rubik's cube full of juicy paradoxes, complete with captive velociraptors, mega-juiced Hoverboards, and the gorgeous Helen of Troy bathing naked in a crystal-clear lagoon. Hell, most of us would probably drain the nearest star just for a crack at that last one.

Time travel combines our fascination with human history and our lust for adventure—the exploration of the root metaphors of our entire culture from the triumph of human engineering, the Great Pyramid of Giza, to abysmal bleakness, watching engineers unclog a 700-year-old Roman out-house. Time travel turns us into gods, whether or not we've managed to sneak a copy of Gray's Sports Almanac back with us or not.

And if the time travelers are already here and living among us, the collective legion of the Internet want to know how and why. It makes sense that if you could return to the time of your choice, you'd probably chose an event with strong historical significance, like Lincoln delivering the Gettysburg Address on that chilly afternoon of Thursday, November 19, 1863.

But, according to a pretty convincing daguerreotype shot by famed Civil War Era photographer Matthew Brady, you wouldn't be alone.

THE BOY WITH THE EXTRA LARGE SHOES

The Battle of Gettysburg lasted three bloody days in the fields outside the small northern town. It proved to be the turning point of the Civil War and the deadliest and bloodiest battle of the entire conflict. Union General George Meade defeated General Robert E. Lee and his Army from Northern Virginia, putting the breaks on the Southern expansion North. For the next two years, the Rebels retreated. They were decidedly decimated during General Sherman's March to the Sea, in which he and his men turned Atlanta, Georgia into a red-hot caldron of retribution. It was a tragic bloodbath, with more than 23,000 casualties on both sides. On average, more than one in three Southern soldiers were injured or killed in the fierce fighting.

A somber event, the ground still wet with battlefield blood, perhaps that's why alleged chrononaut Andrew Basiago took off his shoes and is shown wearing a size way too big for him in the photo.

Basiago is now a Seattle-based lawyer who remarkably ran for the job of President Of The United States in 2016. Though he didn't win, he did cite as his strongest qualifications for the Office his time-travel experience and quality first-hand learning attending history's greatest moments.

IT'S QUITE POSSIBLE THAT A PERSON
TRAVELING FROM THE FUTURE INTO THE PAST IS SOMEHOW BARRED...
FROM CHANGING HISTORY.

Basiago claims he time traveled back in the year 1972 to see "Honest Abe" deliver his great speech and that he is the young man in the photo wearing the too large shoes, having lost his stuck in the bloody bog of the Battle's sacred ground. But his access to secret time traveler technology was not his and his alone. According to published reports, Basiago also teleported to Mars with a young Barack Obama, through a piece of technology called a "jump room." This alternative destination vehicle purportedly allows an individual to literally jump from one time period to another from the comfort of his warm home. Naturally, Basiago claims the government and military are keeping this technology from us to keep the American public in the dark about time travel.

TIME TRAVEL ON FILM

Some years back, time "going viral" was not seen as the positive thing it is today. Throughout most of history, going viral would get you at the very least, quarantined—and at the very best, quarantined! Luckily, the lady captured in a movie still from one of screen legend Charlie Chaplin's classic films was only caught briefly checking her cell phone. The year being 1928, we're not sure if 4G was around yet but we'd hate to be responsible for the roaming charges.

The scene, of course, comes from The Circus, which premiered at Grauman's Chinese Theatre and appears to show a young women walking by very briefly, holding something to her ear that looks a lot like a cell phone. Skeptics counter that the device is simply an early version of a hearing aid called an Ear trumpet.

Interestingly enough, it appears as if the extra wasn't the only actor in Hollywood guilty of wandering out of her time period. Legendary Hollywood actor Henry Fonda can be seen checking what looks like his iPhone while riding in the back of a period stagecoach in the 1948 film Fort Apache.

THE CASE OF MEETING YOURSELF

Hakan Nordkvist is a Swede on Reddit and like many Swedes on Reddit he apparently has a lot of free time on his hands and recently spent an entire afternoon traveling through a wormhole he discovered beneath his kitchen sink and claims to have transported to the year 2042, where he met himself as a 72-year-old elderly gentleman. Oddly enough, the pair appear to have the identical number of hairs on their heads. On meeting his future self, Nordkvist says he tested him vigorously "to see if he was really me. And the strange thing is he knew everything about me." Hakan immediately recognized the tattoo on his 72-year-old self and the pair posed for a quick photo to commemorate the meeting. Nordkvist claims to have had a pleasant time with himself. There's even a short film of him and his future self smiling and embracing each other.

Of course, rumors persist that this was all just a hoax. Debunkers say that the image had been nothing more than an old photo from a failed insurance company marketing campaign. Proponents of Nordkvist's tale challenge the naysayers by pointing to the tattoo. They say the odds are astronomical that two people from different time periods would have the same tattoo, not to mention identical placement on the right arm.

DOCUMENTING THE PAST IN PERSON

There were lots of suspicious looking characters in the infamous JFK assassination film, taken by Abraham Zapruder. History tells us that it was mere coincidence that Zapruder brought along his home movie camera that fateful day in Dallas and just happened to position himself, much like an expectant director, atop a viewing riser.

Of course, this seems like more than mere coincidence to conspiracy-minded folks online. Zapruder's vantage point proved to be the only one that recorded the fateful kill shot (Editor's Note: Frame 313).

Unfortunately, Abraham Zapruder has long left us, or at least presently traveled outside our time zone. Perhaps he's waiting for us in the future, when the U.S. government finally comes clean about the CIA's role in the assassination of a young and most promising President.

WHO'S THE GUY WEARING THE FOSTER GRANTS?

He's known as "history's hipster." And to tell the truth, he looks more out of place than a hairy ballsack on Rachel Maddow. Sorry, bad example.

What is this modern-looking guy with dark, wraparound sunglasses and a dope logo shirt doing at the 1941 official reopening ceremony for the South Fork Bridge in Gold Bridge, British Columbia? Glancing at the folks around him only seems to strengthen the concern. All of the men in the photo are dressed as men dressed in 1941, before the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. Not this guy—he looks like he's waiting on a table at a Williamsburg, Brooklyn diner.

The hipster possesses the sloppy posture of a slacker, someone who might spend all day staring at his computer screen playing video games. He also wears a camera around his neck. What is this, Revenge of the Nerds? Not likely. This shot was found among photos in the Virtual Museum of Canada. Once again, doesn't this seem like a pretty obscure event to want to witness in person.

Old newspaper accounts disclose that a murder was committed that day, in fact, in that very spot. It stands to reason that perhaps the person murdered (the victim was apparently stabbed to death) was a close relative.

One possible guess is that the time traveler could be there to try to solve the 75-year-old crime, which makes sense. According to police records, the crime remains unsolved, which could either mean that the "hipster" saw too much, got too close, and received a similar punishment. Based on this case we believe it's quite possible that a person traveling from the future into the past is somehow barred, perhaps physically or even metaphysically, from changing history. This is plausible because if he were allowed to change history, he might cease to exist.

"SELFIE" WITH A STAR

These days, people will do almost anything to become huge website stars.

Back in the '50s, stars didn't come any bigger than Marilyn Monroe—and we're not talking about her legendary rack—we're talking about sheer star power. Back in the day it would've been quite a coup for a young woman to score a "selfie" with the legendary blonde bombshell. And this particular young woman seems to have accomplished her task by hiding out in the woman's restroom. Seen clearly in the background, the young woman appears to be grabbing a shot with the legendary Norma Jean. And the woman in question here appears to be holding an iPhone, that is, about 50 years too early. Poor Marilyn seems more than a bit stunned, looking off to her left as if she appears to be on the edge of yet another crisis, as you also might had you just been ambushed in the loo by a pretty time traveler.

ONLY TIME WILL TELL

Whether the technology for time travel is real or not—speculation is it was handed down by extraterrestrials—our existence alone is too damn unpredictable to deny the possibility or existence of anything.

After all, science can only tell us that we're the product of about 14.5 billion years of evolutionary activity after the Big Bang, but when it comes to telling us how that enigmatic collision came to be, they're a bit less knowledgeable.

The real question is whether time travel technology will ultimately be used for good or evil. Well, I guess that's entirely up to us. Actually, it's entirely up those already in on the secret, the select few who navigate the space-time continuum.

EROTICA X PRESENTS ANAL PLEASURE

ALL IMAGES COURTESY OF EROTICA X

A couples-leaning, anally centered collection of four different scenes, Erotica X's Anal Pleasure is quite passionate and loving. For couples looking to explore anal, this is a must-watch. It's loving anal sex with just a hint of hardness to it. A tiny hint. For you hardcore anal fiends—check this out and see what's possible with high production values rather than relying on up-close-and-personal anal intrusion footage.

JILLIAN JANSON

The dirty blonde vixen gets the party started with a bit of gurgling and gagging before sliding onto Jessy Jones' rod in reverse. With her heels digging into the mattress, she lifts off his log to cum on the white comforter. Jessy moves to the bedside so he can pump her methodically. She flips over and he pumps her some more. After a bit, he spreads her ass cheeks to check out her back door and plunges his cock into it. Jillian moans and rubs herself furiously while her husband inspects her anus with his rod. She spreads her cheeks wide with her hands for the camera. Flipping over, she spreads her legs, using her heels as handholds so she can watch the backdoor action she's getting while hubby rubs her clit with his thumb. They then engage in some anal spooning on the bed. Jillian holds her top leg to the sky, showing off her bush as Jessy continues his anal assault. The final straddle brings him to the edge and she rolls over to catch his load on her ass.

AMIRAH ADARA

Damon Dice gets busy taking off the Hungarian hottie's top and she gets busy jerking his johnson.

Her jerking becomes slurping and he starts fingering her ass. Soon enough, she's pumping on his pecker in doggie, gyrating as she goes, before she decides to take a ride. Damon grips the bedsheets and basically holds on while she works her magic, his hands moving to her hips, and then her ass; his mouth agape as he tries to figure out the best way to control the rodeo ride that's happening on him. Damon then pokes his fingers into her lower holes while reaching for a long, glass and dildo. After some teasing and poking into her with it, he inserts himself into her ass while she takes over dildo duties. Damon's working up a sheen going from hole to hole. With both of their bodies shining with sweat, he lifts her hips to his mouth for a quick snack before folding her in half for some deep anal drilling, then Damon really goes at it until he unloads all over her tummy and she lovingly milks his manhood with her hands.

SUMMER DAY

Summer's smile lights the room as Michael Vegas explores her with his fingers and tongue. Her eyes light up, lash extensions batting seductively as he reaches into his sport coat to pull out a glass butt plug. She positions herself on the sofa and he lubes up her ass and then slides his fingers into her pussy and the plug into her rear. His fingers flexing, her hips pumping, she enjoys the dual hole action she's getting and the clothes come off. Michael relubes and reinserts her butt plug and then inserts himself into the nearest available hole. He muffles her moans and then replaces the butt plug with his pole. They hump softly for a while and then Michael turns up the power, pausing only to lick her ass before the serious plowing of her back begins. Summer's locks are getting limp and lifeless before she lifts herself onto him in reverse cowgirl; his hands working her erogenous zones as she works her ass up and down on his stiffy. It's those final anal pumps that cause him to unload all over her.

JADE JANTZEN

she slaps herself down on his dick. Jade moves into a spoon and Danny's carefully, ever so slowly, slides his rod into her rectum. His slow strokes progressively get harder and faster as her false lashes bat at him. Since Jade is a freak, he takes her ass in many positions, sweat beading on his brow as he bangs away. Her lithe body looks good in the body-bathing light as she rides him in reverse, a gasp escaping her lips as he lays her down to re-enter her rear. His strokes are short and consistent, never getting his entire length into her ass but finally blasting a heavy load to her crotch and tummy in slo-mo as the scene fades and the credits roll.
